*A suggested donation from non-members of $50 per holiday is appreciated.
Non-members are also asked to please make reservations for the HHDs.*

Help us Break-the-Fast Together

With the help of our Sisterhood, we are once again planning to have a covered dish Break-the-Fast after Yom Kippur services have concluded. If you are planning to attend the High Holidays at Temple B'nai Israel and would like to participate in the Community Break-the-Fast, please contact Lisa Rahn at 503-338-0449 or Judith Scott at 507-779-9804 with what you plan to bring. Each dish should be enough to serve 8-12 people. If you don't know what to bring we will be happy to give you an assignment!

Please remember that this is a dairy meal, so NO meat (or shellfish) please. Bagels and cream cheese will be provided. Some of the top favorites that will be needed: lox, herring, baked kugel, fruit & vegetables, egg salad, tuna salad and, of course, desserts. A sign-up sheet appears on page 10.

Please bring your dishes table-ready, as our kitchen is small and services will be underway. You can bring it in the door and directly to the table, with no fuss, no muss and minimal noise. Thank you all in advance for your assistance with our Break-the-Fast. We really appreciate your help and look forward to seeing everyone during the High Holidays.

❧ The President's Message ❧

It's September already! This year has flown by – starting with a joyous family wedding, a granddaughter entering high school, a grandson flying the coop to start out on his own (and immediately breaking bones in a biking accident), the mitzvah of a first great granddaughter, and the tsuris of multiple health issues with siblings, in-laws and Judith which have yet to be resolved.

But that was just on a personal level – we searched for and found a new Rabbi for our shul. Rabbi Alana Wasserman joined us officially on July 1st after leading our High Holy Days services last fall and leading a full “Scholar in Residence” weekend last May. I feel so good about this choice for our spiritual leadership. Rabbi Wasserman has a genuine “calling” to the rabbinate, is warm and friendly, knowledgeable, giving, inspirational and available to all of us for consultation, consolation, prayer or just to talk.

This past Jewish Year of 5776 has been a learning experience for me as president of the shul. There really is a lot to do in our small shul. With limited financial resources, we must rely on the brains and brawn of our members for many functions, some as simple (but necessary) as cleaning bathrooms and vacuuming the red carpet, to detailing rules, policies, and by-laws that make sense to our members and our circumstance.

As we approach a new year (5777) let's all take stock of the successes of the past year, and learn from the other efforts that weren't so wonderful. Be honest with yourself but be kind as well. These High Holy Days of ours command us to examine our lives and make amends where needed. After doing so, we can start anew....another chance to improve and be better human beings.

L'shalom - Sarah

With Appreciation - from the TBI Board

The TBI Board is grateful to the following members for their contributions to the Temple:

Marsha Kraselsky for her service on the Board for the past year. We always appreciate our members giving of their time and talents to help us grow and improve. Marsha brought her ideas and experience from previous temple board service to help us. Thanks for your energy and efforts toward achieving our goals.

Bob Goetz and Mike Starkman for finding a refurbished computer for the TBI office and the donation of a larger newer screen....and for setting it all up.

Heather Mewhinney for picking up and delivering donations to BCFA.

Georgie Hartzog for attending the ISJL Education Conference and returning with great ideas and a lot of enthusiasm.

Mary and Mike Starkman for volunteering to attend

Had'rachah training in Wisconsin and their willingness to share their knowledge with the rest of us.

Nate and Jason Mewhinney for fixing stuff, small and large, in and around the shul.

Nathan Miller for seeing to it that the grass and shrubbery are maintained.

Judith Scott for organizing the shul library and for maintaining a clean, swept and vacuumed interior... and for defeating the army of fire ants.

Members of the Caring Committee for reaching out to members who are ill or shut in.

Everyone who uses the kitchen and leaves it in the same good condition they found it.

And to all those who do whatever you can to keep our shul open and welcoming to area Jews and those just passing through. Thank You!

Preparing For The New Year

This year, the month of September and the Hebrew month of Elul begin almost at the same time (technically, Elul begins at night on September 3). The month of Elul, which immediately precedes Rosh Hashanah, is a time of preparation for the High Holy Days.

During this time, we are supposed to make a cheshbon hanefesh, an accounting of our souls. We must reflect on our actions of the past year. What did we do right? Did we make any mistakes? How can we correct them? We are to apologize to those whom we have wronged, and forgive those who have wronged us. We have to prepare ourselves for the New Year, both emotionally and spiritually.

This is by no means an easy task. However, it is a worthwhile task, because it teaches us to be honest, humble, and accountable. It also allows for us to start the New Year refreshed and renewed.

I look forward to seeing all of you on the weekend of September 16th!

L'shalom, Rabbi Alana Wasserman

Leah Wittenberg
ISJL Education Fellow

Shalom! My name is Leah Wittenberg and I am thrilled to be B'nai Israel's new Education Fellow from the Goldring/Woldenberg Institute of Southern Jewish Life (ISJL).

After growing up in the suburbs of Chicago and then attending college in Boston at Tufts University, I never thought I would end up in the South after school. However, I found out about the ISJL through none other than JewishJobs.com (yes, it exists!), and I am so excited to get to live and travel across a part of the country that is new to me. Jewish education and engagement have always been passions of mine, and I am fortunate to be working for an organization that is committed to strengthening Jewish life.

The ISJL, based in Jackson, Mississippi, is dedicated to providing educational and rabbinic services, preserving the rich history of the Southern Jewish experience, sharing Jewish cultural and artistic programs, and facilitating community engagement opportunities throughout a thirteen state region. I'm honored to be part of a team committed to serving communities like yours.

In college, I double-majored in Judaic Studies and Spanish and was actively involved in the Jewish community. My love of Judaism spans all generations and denominations. I love working with children and recently spent a few days as a faculty member, teaching elementary schoolers, at Greene Family Camp, a URJ camp in Bruceville, Texas. Last year, I got to work with high school students when I was the Senior Youth Group Advisor at Temple Aliyah in Needham, Massachusetts.

I served on the student board of Hillel for four years, most recently as the Vice President of Spiritual and Religious Life. I have created numerous engaging programs for college-age Jewish students in this way. I also have experience with adult education from my time as an intern at Mayyim Hayyim Community Mikveh and Education Center in Newton, Massachusetts. Finally, I love creating inventive t'filah (prayer) spaces such as poetry-inspired prayer and exercise-inspired prayer.

I can't wait to spend time in your community and to help people of all ages engage with their Jewish identities and create a welcoming community for all. As your Education Fellow this year, I am dedicated to making sure that Temple B'nai Israel and your congregants get the most out of your partnership with the ISJL.

Religious School Starts Sunday, September 11...Hooray!

We are all excited to announce the first day of TBI's Religious School will be Sunday, September 11, at 9:30 am. The educators led by Daniel Sternlicht and Georgie Hartzog have met with Rabbi Wasserman and volunteer aides to plan and schedule lessons for the school year. A second meeting was held with Leah Wittenburg, our ISJL Fellow for this year, so that she can add her skills in teaching our kids as well.

Daniel will take the first hour of each class to continue teaching the Hebrew alphabet, Shabbat prayers and songs for holidays and the Sabbath. Georgie will take on the second hour each Sunday to teach the kids Jewish history, traditions and how Jewish laws fit into our everyday lives. Georgie has lots of project ideas to share with the kids, too. A short break for a nosh will separate the two hours.

In addition, several congregants and parents have volunteered to help with special programs, projects and holiday events. They are Linette Sternlicht, Heather Mewhinney and Judith Scott. Rabbi Wasserman will provide her expertise once a month when she is here and Leah Wittenburg will do the same twice during the year.

Students who have signed up for school this year are Amanda, Pearl, Ari, Lizzy and Jackie. They are going to have a lot of fun learning about their roots and participating in Jewish traditions. As always, parents and congregants are invited to attend and even help with lessons. Just contact one of the teachers if you wish to do so. A school schedule is posted on the Temple bulletin board in the entrance to shul. Learn and Enjoy!

This year's Festivals stamps from Israel Post were inspired by the poem "As the Clay in the Hand of the Potter," which appears in the Ashkenazi version of the prayerbook for the eve of Yom Kippur. The author is unknown. It portrays human beings as being subject to the will of God, who decides who shall live and who shall die. This poem is recited on Yom Kippur because "Yom Kippur is the time for all to repent, individuals and the community at large. It is the climax of forgiveness and of pardon for Israel, thus every person is obligated to repent and confess on Yom Kippur" (Maimonides, Laws of Repentance 2:7). The poet uses imagery featuring artisans using different kinds of materials; just as human beings are raw materials molded by the hand of God. "As the clay in the hand of THE POTTER, He expands it at will and contracts it at will... As the glass in the hand of THE GLAZIER, He shapes it at will and dissolves it at will... As the silver in the hand of THE SILVERSMITH, He spoils it at will and purifies it at will." Text by Dr. Dov Herman, Department of Jewish Studies, Bar-Ilan University. The new stamps will be issued September 13, 2016. Source: <http://www.israelpost.co.il/postboolae.nsf/HanpakotViewEng?OpenView&L=EN>

How You Can Help Ensure a Strong and Vibrant Temple B'nai Israel

by Robert J. Goetz, Board Member and Webmaster

It troubles me when I run into people in and around Bay County, some Jewish, some just seeking to further their understanding of Judaism; many totally unaware of Temple B'nai Israel!

Let's work to fix that!

Would you like to ensure a strong and vibrant Jewish community in Bay County and across the Florida Panhandle? If you're reading this column, the answer is most likely yes. How can you best help contribute toward this effort? Well, money is always good and TBI is always happy to receive donations regardless of amount. Aside from money, you can help ensure a vibrant Jewish community by helping to get the word out about upcoming TBI services, religious school, and other events. Too busy you say? I totally understand and have tried to streamline the process.

There are multiple ways that you, member or non-member, can play a key role with minimal effort towards helping get the word out about TBI. I've listed several below:

Business Cards: TBI has business cards with phone number, street and web addresses noted. Pick up a few of these cards in the synagogue lobby during your next visit and stuff several in your wallet or purse. During work, shopping, dining, at the fitness center, or other personal activities, should the conversation touch upon Judaism in any way, try mentioning TBI and reach into that wallet or purse to offer a business card. Suggest they visit our synagogue online to learn more about our Sisterhood, Rabbi, Religious School, or to just opt-in to receive the latest copy of The Azoy!

Web Site: TBI's new website www.bnaiisraelpc.org is updated regularly with new content, upcoming events, and the latest and back issues of The Azoy! Be sure to click on the Facebook and Twitter links located in the top right corner of every page and Like Us on Facebook and Follow Us on Twitter. Check out the Calendar page and post a friendly word or two. Click on any of the four social media buttons – Facebook, Twitter, Google Plus, or LinkedIn and share upcoming events that you plan to attend.

Facebook: Visit TBI's Facebook page often and like and/or share items of interest with friends, family, and co-workers.

Twitter: Follow TBI on Twitter and repost Tweets to your own followers.

Refer Someone to TBI: Drop a brief note to any Board member – see page 9 of this issue for contact list – and we'll take it from there.

Had'rachah Training by Mike and Mary Starkman

Mike and I were honored to represent Temple B'nai Israel at URJ's Had'rachah Seminar for Lay Leadership in Ritual Life 2016 from July 13th through July 17th. We were quickly immersed into long days of study, usually from 7:30 am until 10:00 pm. Small congregations from New York, Massachusetts, Georgia, Alabama, Texas, Idaho, and of course Florida were represented at this session.

Had'rachah is held at Olin-Sang-Ruby Union Institute (OSURI) in Oconomowoc, WI. This is also one of twenty URJ campsites and is under the direction of Jerry Kaye.

This training session prepared each of us to be a Shaliach Tzibor (Lay Leader) for the Friday night Shabbat and Havdalah Services. As well as to lead prayer in several life cycle events including Brit Milah (bris), baby naming, and funeral. We were trained by several outstanding Rabbis and Cantors, as well as URJ trainers. All of these instructors were also there for educating the campers. The campers were all having a wonderful time at the camp.

We hope we have come back from this experience better able to serve our small congregation. We are ready to help each of you prepare and lead a lay led service. Please feel free to contact us at any time.

Committee Reports – Where Ideas Meet Action by Sarah Farkas

Caring Committee

Mary Starkman has joined the Caring Committee and is now one of four TBI congregants to offer a compassionate hand to all Jews in our area. If you or a family member or friend is in need of support, a caring phone call, a friendly visit, a prayer or just a chat with another Jew, please call us at 850-522-3685. A member of the Committee will return your call.

Other members of the committee are Nate Mewhinney, Judith Scott and Heather Mewhinney. They are ready to hear from you about how to respond to your specific needs and the needs of the Jewish Community. “The warm hand of a friend can carry us through the hardest of times.”

Ritual Committee

The Ritual Committee continues to work on specific plans for the upcoming High Holy Days. They are fast approaching with erev Rosh Hashanah services on Sunday, October 2. Calls and letters are being made/sent to TBI members offering HH Honors for one or more of the services. Committee members ask that you respond affirmatively to their requests.

Other efforts by the Committee involve finding members to complete TBI’s scheduling of volunteers to: 1) Host the Rabbi on weekends when she is here (still need hosts for November 2016); 2) Prepare the entrée for Shabbat dinners in December 2016 and April 2017, and 3) Lead lay services. Sign-up sheets are conveniently located in the entryway to the shul.

Education Committee

School starts September 11 and the teachers and aides are very excited! We hope the students are too.

Georgie Hartzog, our new Religious School co-Director, notes that Sunday School registration and classes will begin September 11, from 9:30 - 11:30 am. Be prepared to experience a wonderful year!

Georgie would also like to remind parents that the Rabbi will conduct the Religious School lesson on Sunday, Sept 18th. Entitled “A Tour of the Temple,” she will explain and highlight important aspects of our Shul, from doorpost to Ark.

Building Committee

Nate Mewhinney, with the approval of the Board, scheduled a “refacing” of TBI’s exterior front with Rhino-Shield – a product with a 25 year guarantee that will make our entrance more attractive and welcoming once again; see page 9 for photo.

Website/Public Relations Committee

Bob Goetz and crew have been updating and upgrading TBI’s website with pertinent info and schedules. Read his article on page 6 and be sure to check us out at www.bnaiisraelpc.org and bookmark it. Look for information on upcoming High Holy Days services in the local press as well.

The Votes Are In! Proxy Vote Results in Approval of all Three Issues

The results of the recent proxy vote, which was necessitated by the lack of a quorum at our Annual Congregational meeting in June, were as follows:

- Election of Slate of Officers and Trustees as presented (Marsha Kraselsky resigned her trusteeship in the midst of the proxy voting, requiring the existing Board to fill that position – with Nate Mewhinney, a former Board member). Officers and Trustees for the current Fiscal Year are:

President: Sarah Farkas

Vice President: Stephen Theberge

Treasurer: Mike Starkman

Secretary: Stephen Sickerman

Trustees: Pavel Amromin, Bob Goetz, Nate Mewhinney

- By-Laws changes approved as written
- Proposed Budget for the 2016-17 fiscal year approved as presented

Thanks to each of you who returned your proxy vote by US mail or e-mail, so the Board can continue to work on the issues affecting the Temple.

Temple Sisterhood is Good

Sisterhood members are busy getting ready for the High Holidays. We will provide an oneg after the Erev Rosh Hashanah services on Sunday, October 2, and plan the Break-the-Fast meal for the end of Yom Kippur. We will be asking folks to help out very soon. Please see the Break-the-Fast sign-up sheet on page 10.

Members have approved a modest donation to the Jewish Federation of Baton Rouge to help relief efforts in flood ravaged Louisiana.

On the horizon, mark your calendars for May 26, 2017, for a Sisterhood-led Shabbat Service! The service will be a good blend of spirituality, humor and spontaneity.

Sisterhood continues its support of nonprofit Family Service Agency (FSA) of Bay County and asks that each of you consider donating items, like used clothing, individual non-perishable foods, personal hygiene products, reusable ice packs, bottled water, school supplies and much more. FSA lists their current needs on a weekly basis in each Sunday's edition of the News Herald and on their Facebook page: <https://www.facebook.com/familyserviceagencycypc/?fref=nf>. You can leave your donated items in our collection box, located just inside the shul door to the left.

Recently, Don and Nancy Darish had two bicycles they wanted to donate to a good cause and asked Sisterhood President Lisa Rahn for suggestions. Lisa contacted the Family Service Agency (FSA), the Sisterhood's Tzedakah project, to see if they knew anyone who could use them. Betty Gehrken, FSA's Office Manager, replied with an enthusiastic "Yes!" Just that morning, a case manager had inquired about a bicycle for a client. More than a form of recreation, a bicycle can provide vital transportation for a needy community member to enable that person to work, run errands and have social contact. Kudos to Don and Nancy for their generous donation!

TBI Board Welcomes Pavel Amromin and Nate Mewhinney

We are pleased to announce the election of Pavel Amromin to the TBI Board. He brings his considerable artistic talent and thought process to the Board.

We also are delighted to welcome back Nate Mewhinney, who will complete Marsha Kraselsky's term on the Board.

Both of these trustees offer their unique perspectives to help us move forward and grow. And they each have first-hand experience with children in the TBI Religious School.

Welcome Pavel and Nate!

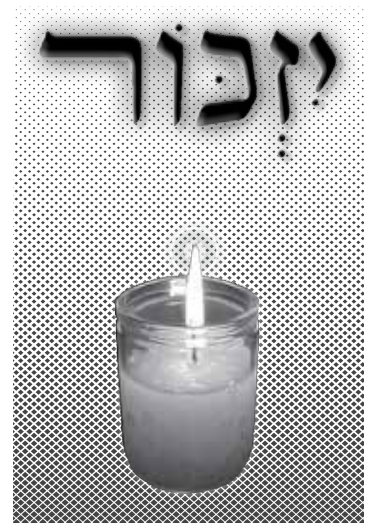

Note from The AZOY Editors: 1st Notice for this year's Yizkor Book

If you would like to have the names of your loved ones placed in the 2016 Yizkor Book and read by our Rabbi during the Memorial Service on Yom Kippur, please contact Stephen Sickerman at sickerman@comcast.net no later than September 25. Please indicate the names of your loved ones.

The requested donation amount is $18 for 1-3 names and $36 for 4-8 names.
